Opelika Chamber sponsors Crime and Fire Prevention Seminar

OPELIKA, AL – (June 16, 2011) A Crime Prevention and Fire Safety seminar will be held at the Opelika Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, June 29 at 11 a.m. Most people have a strategy planned in case of a fire or crime in their home, but what about their businesses? Prevention measures need to be in place and updates are very important for the well-being of businesses.

Officer Jackie Hamby of the Opelika Police Department, Captain Scott McBurney from the Opelika Fire Department, and Sheriff Jay Jones of the Lee County Sheriff's Department, guest speakers, will talk about crime and fire safety issues as it relates to businesses.

Make plans to attend this brown-bag event with the Chamber providing drinks and dessert. The cost is free for Chamber members and their employees. The cost for potential members is $5. Please call the Chamber at (334) 745-4861 to register. Deadline is June 27 and seating is limited.
