Membership investments in the Opelika Chamber of Commerce may be tax deductible as an ordinary business expense. Investments paid to the Chamber are not a charitable tax deduction as the Chamber is not a charity but serves as an advocate organization for area businesses. Membership investments are made on an annual basis in June. Your investment will be prorated if your business chooses to invest at any other time during the year or you have the option to pay the pro-rated amount plus the annual amount and not be billed until the following year.
